The Rules for the preparation of the electoral Rolls issued in connection with the 1950 Corporation elections are part-cep In Rule 1 and 9 of these Rules the dates of publication of the Rolls - preliminary and final as it applied to the 1950 elections have been deleted & mentioned so the Rules have become inapplicable to the ensuing elections

2) In the revised draft of the Rules now sent by the Collector reference to any specified dates have been omitted to make it generalised and applicable to all future elections Thus no principle is involved

3) In the old Rules the persons herein who shall be appointed as Revising Authorities have been specified The Collector has avoided this occasion of revising the Rules to amend Rule 3 (1) also and have

for himself the power of approving whomsoever he selects as the Revising Authority the vesting of such a discretion as the Chief Executive Authority appears to be necessary if proper men are to be chosen for the area This suggestion may also perhaps be accepted

4) In Rule 1 of the amended draft, the last date for the publication of the preliminary electoral Roll has not been prescribed There may be a serious omission So the addition of the following words as the beginning of this Rule may be desirable

" Three months prior to the date of expiry of office of the Corporation Councillors "

Again as Rule 3(2) the authority to whom and the place at which claims and objections should be preferred if not defined there omission may cause inconvenience to the public So ~~substitute~~ for the words ~~"and preceding"~~ read " as the office of the Commissioner as here this, the words " ~~preceding~~ "To the Revising Authority at ~~the~~ ~~place~~ Specified places" may perhaps be substituted
